

Wild about Scratching

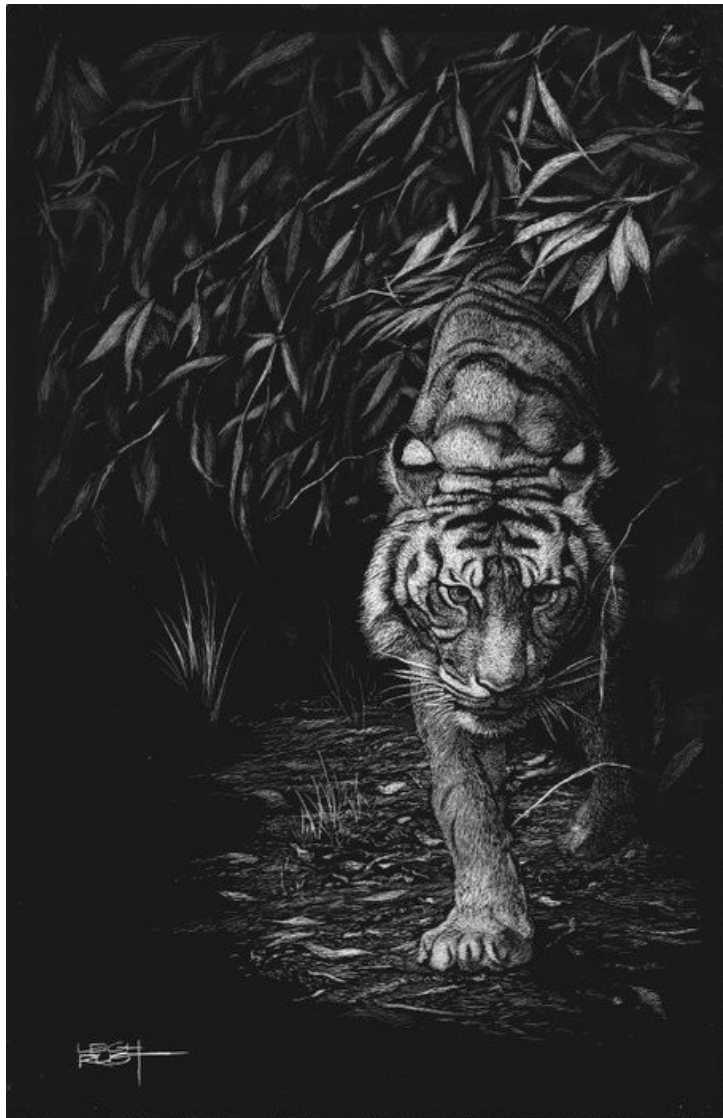

An introduction to scratchboard art

with Leigh Rust

October 16 – December 4 2011

What you will learn...

How to handle tools used to create wildlife art using scratchboard. You will explore the methods for creating various textures and lighting, how to render basic forms, colouring methods, and finally creating 2 wildlife works: a basic animal portrait and an animal in their environment.

Wild about scratching information

Course cost: $160

Materials for the course: $80 per student
Includes Speedball mapping pen
Ampersand Scratchbord tool kit
3 5"x 7" Scratchboards
2 16"x 20" Scratchboards

Material kits must be paid by Wednesday 21/09/2011
$50 deposit for course required by Wednesday 21/09/2011
$110 balance due on first session (Sunday 16/10/2011)

Venue: TBM Training, 7 Bakewell st, Cranbourne
3pm – 5pm Sunday
Call Leigh: 0410419075 if you need assistance getting there.

Class numbers will be limited to 12 students

Please note: If you miss a class there is no refund. Existing students may do their catch up class in their regular session at an additional cost.

All deposits are non-refundable

ENROLMENT DETAILS

Name:

Address:

Phone:

Email:

Material kits are deposits
may be paid via the following methods
Cash/Cheque/Direct Deposit

(All cheques to be made out to Leigh Rust)

(Bank deposit information)

Acc name: Mr Leigh Rust

BSB: 733620

ACC: 503029

Bank: Westpac

Please return a copy of this form to
Leigh Rust Art Studio
31 Pommel St, Pakenham, Vic 3810

